Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The Lake Area Improvement Corporation appreciates more than 8 years of outstanding loyalty provided by Carolyn Rudebusch; and,

Whereas, Carolyn is recognized for her time spent on countless committees and boards; and,

Whereas, Carolyn met the challenge of working for 15 bosses and, hopefully, considered that to be an exciting and rewarding experience; and,

Whereas, Carolyn's dedication was tested during the training of four executive directors; and,

Whereas, Madison and the surrounding area are better places to live because of Carolyn's commitment to economic development; and,

Whereas, Carolyn has earned a well-deserved retirement, which will allow her to spend more time at the lake home and with her grandchildren:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 22, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join her colleagues, friends and family as they recognize Carolyn for her commitment to a successful career.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
